As part of Services Cooperative Association's Network and Learn Educational Events, we are excited to present as our speaker

Gregory Sparkman, M.A.O.M., M.M.Q., L.ac of Advanced Traditions

for an evening of learning, food and fun.

Gregory Sparkman lectures and teaches complementary and alternative health care to the public and is affiliated with the American College of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine as an Assistant Academic Instructor and Adjunct Clinical Instructor.

Gregory's clinic is located at 3400 Montrose, Suite 312, where his loyal clients trust him to guide them in prevention of illness and improvement of their appearance through the wisdom of Acupuncture, Tui-Na, Herbology, and Qi Gong.

This experience will...

Strengthen your commitment to your health.

Provide you with strategies for working with complementary health care services.

Connect you with remarkable women.

Bring new friendships and more fun into your business and life.

Fill you up with delicious Italian food!
